Local Girls Are Honor Graduates at Marymount

Six graduating seniors received scholarships and other awards at the Marymount Palos Verdes commencement exercises held on campus last Saturday afternoon, school officials reported this week.

Mary Ann Desmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Desmond, 1501 Chelsea Rd., Palos Verdes Estates, graduated cum laude with distinction in the field of science. She was valedictorian as well as serving as president of the Marymount student body during the current school year. Miss Desmond also won the highest award a Marymount student can achieve, when both faculty and students unanimously voted her the recipient of the coveted Mother Butler gold medal. This medal is awarded to the student who through four years of school is most outstanding in leadership, loyalty and character. Miss Desmond also won the Gerard gold medal for maintaining an outstanding scholastic record throughout the four years.

Nancy Viefhaus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Viefhaus, 1605 Acacia, Torrance, graduated cum laude and is winner of a scholarship to Marymount College in Westwood.

Toni Gillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Gillian, 3604 Via Navajo, Palos Verdes Estates, graduated with distinction in history. Ann Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. H. Eaton, 2100 Paseo del Mar, Palos Verdes Estates, was the winner of an honor certificate in the national commercial contests.

Ann Carmichael, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. G. K. Carmichael, U.S. Navy, of Washington, D.C., graduated cum laude. She was awarded the Cecilia Gold Medal for proficiency in English and was winner in the speech for democracy contest. Capt. Carmichael flew from his duty station in Washington, D.C. to be present for his daughter's graduation honors.

Dolores Froelich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Froelich, 822 Crestwood, San Pedro, was awarded the Archbishop Cantwell memorial gold medal for religious knowledge and practice.

The Marymount special trophy, to the class voted most outstanding in cooperation, loyalty and initiative during the current school year, was awarded this year to the freshman class. Kathie Thornton and Kathie Murray, class representatives, accepted the trophy on behalf of their class.

His excellency, the Most Rev. Timothy Manning, D.D., auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles, presided over the exercises and presented the awards to the outstanding graduates.
